For Immediate Release

Rosepapa named Executive Vice President for Crystal Point, Inc.

September 25, 2008 - Crystal Point, Inc., the leading worldwide provider of PC connectivity software for Hewlett Packard NonStop™ systems has named Brian Rosepapa as Executive Vice President. Mr. Rosepapa will retain his current position as Chief Operating Officer, a position he has held since 2003. As Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Mr. Rosepapa will be responsible for corporate financial performance and planning, corporate contract negotiations, administration and human resources. Additionally, Mr. Rosepapa will assume all executive responsibilities in the absence of Chris Smith, President/CEO.

Mr. Rosepapa has been with the company since 1996, serving as Controller and then as Director of Business Operations. Mr. Rosepapa received his B.A. in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix.

Crystal Point provides a full range of host connectivity solutions to organizations looking to leverage their NonStop enterprise application investments. The product portfolio includes traditional host access products performing terminal emulation, SSL or SSH2 encryption of data communications, file transfers as well as host publishing applications that rejuvenate, repurpose and integrate multiple legacy applications. The majority of NonStop users worldwide use Crystal Point software.
